

Prosper Canada online course: Financial Literacy for Facilitators

This online course is designed to help front-line practitioners to gain the skills and knowledge required to become financially empowered and to successfully deliver financial literacy workshops in your community. The course provides an orientation to the content, facilitation basics and explores how to adapt the Prosper Canada Centre for Financial Literacy's curriculum to the needs, context, and interests of vulnerable and low-income Canadians.

You may complete each module at your own pace, as long as you complete all modules by the time the course closes after 8 weeks. It will require approximately 2-4 hours of your time each week to complete, depending on your pace. Throughout the course once you complete a Module and its Quiz, you will receive access to the next Module.

Modules:

- Introduction
- Facilitation
- Module One: Exploring your relationship with money
- Module Two: Income and taxes
- Module Three: Budgeting
- Module Four: Banking and financial services
- Module Five: Saving
- Module Six: Credit basics
- Module Seven: Credit reporting
- Module Eight: Debt
- Module Nine: Consumerism
- Summary and next steps

Successful completion of the course requires:

- Completion of all modules
- Grade of 70% or higher on the quizzes
- Completion of the post-survey

Upon successful completion of the course you will receive:

- A curriculum manual containing all nine financial topic modules (PDF)
- Access to online evaluation tools
- A PowerPoint presentation template
- A certificate of completion

Space in each course section is limited. If the current course section is full, please write to Glenna Harris gharris@prospercanada.org to be added to the list to be notified when the next course registration is available.
