Screening questions to determine if a benefits conversation would be useful

1

Have you filed your taxes for the past five years?

2

Have you recently experienced, or are you coming up to a big life change?

3

Do you have enough money to make ends meet?

Conversation pathways

Pathway 1

(Public/on-the-job)

Pathway 2

(1:1 money conversation)

Pathway 3

(In a 1:1 meeting in a related field)

Tips for Pathway 1

Public/on-the-job

Open the conversation with something like:
"I'd like to ask a few questions to identify other ways we might be able to help. Would you be willing to answer a few questions?"

If willing, ask the screening questions.

If appropriate, ask if they would be interested in exploring benefits.

If interested, set up a dedicated 1:1 meeting.

Sample questions for Pathway 1

Public/on-the-job

“Would you be interested in exploring whether you might be eligible for any benefits to help increase your income?”

“Did you know there are benefits that may be able to help?”

“Have you explored the possibility of getting some benefits to increase your income? If not, would you like some support in exploring that possibility?”

“I know about some resources that may help you find out if you could be receiving benefits. Would you be interested in learning about that?”

Tips for Pathway 2

During a money conversation

Ask the screening questions as part of the broader financial conversation.

Consider open-ended questions about improving their financial situation / increasing income.

If participant identifies need for increased income, ask if they are interested in checking for benefits.

Proceed based on participant's interest.

Sample questions for Pathway 2

During a money conversation

What are some things that could possibly help your financial situation right now?

Have you considered any ways to potentially increase your income?

What ideas do you have to improve your financial situation?

What steps have you already taken to improve your financial situation/increase your income?

Tips for Pathway 3

In a related field

Use open-ended questions to identify the individual's stressors.

If a need for increased income is identified, share that there may be benefits that could help.

If participant is interested, proceed with the screening questions.

Set up a dedicated meeting to explore further, as makes sense.

Sample questions for Pathway 3

During a money conversation

What's causing you the most stress right now?

What are you most worried about right now?

What are some of your short-term money goals?

Tips for all Pathways

- Set realistic expectations and avoid saying things like, "You will probably be eligible for..."
- Follow the participant's lead / preferences
- Remember your role is to support the process. Avoid giving direct advice or trying to "fix" things.
